AAPHP Membership Information:

AAPHP Institutional Membership is open to all CEPH-accredited MPH programs. Each member institution may appoint up to two representatives. The representatives to AAPHP shall be the person designated by the Institution as the Director/Coordinator of the program or their appointee. The Institution, acting through the Director/Coordinator of the accredited program, also shall appoint one additional representative to the Association. Institutions may withdraw membership from the council by written notification to the president.

Associate Membership is open to programs considering CEPH Program accreditation and institutions that have formally requested applicant status. Associate members are welcome to participate as non-voting members in meetings. Associate members also receive meeting notices and other announcements.
